New release of “In the Journals Plus” now on Healio.com
Provides physicians the cure for hours of reading

Thorofare, NJ —Healio.com announced the new release of ITJplus, a time-saving, free resource that provides busy physicians with summaries of the top journal articles in medicine.

ITJplus helps physicians keep up with all their medical journals, without the hours of reading. ITJplus reviews the literature and selects the most important articles from relevant scientific journals. Articles are expertly summarized with physician perspectives to bring practical insight to emerging topics.

New Features

Streamlined format: Provides physicians an enhanced user experience.

Three prompts to surface relevant content:

Most Popular: The 3 most popular ITJplus articles in the specialty.

Related Articles: The 3 ITJplus articles most relevant to the article being viewed.

From this Journal: The 3 most recently posted ITJplus articles associated with the journal.

Current specialties in the new release include: Hematology and Oncology at itjplus.com/hemonc, Endocrinology at itjplus.com/endo and Infectious Disease at itjplus.com/id.

“Physicians need to stay current with the latest clinical literature, yet they have limited time. ITJplus offers readers a way to keep up with their reading through a convenient, concise and practical format,” said Joan-Marie Stiglich, ELS, Chief Content Officer of SLACK Incorporated, publisher of Healio.com.

ITJplus* summarizes the most important articles from leading journals:

- NEJM
- JAMA
- The Lancet
- Journal of Clinical Oncology
- Clinical Infectious Diseases
- The Journal of Clinical Endocrinology & Metabolism
- Plus +117 more

“We launched ITJplus a year ago, under the guidance of our physician editorial leadership along with feedback from KOLs we interact with on a regular basis. Since then, response to ITJplus has been very positive, and we are excited about our time-saving enhancements,” Stiglich said.

Other journal abstracting services charge subscription fees of hundreds of dollars. ITJplus offers perspective and other features not found anywhere else, all free and readily accessible online at Healio.com.
